

vinous

90_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2014 Campo di Tenaglia

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2028

The 2014 Campo di Tenaglia is a bit richer and deeper than the Magnacosta, but, here, too, the personality of the vintage marks the wine to a significant degree. Succulent dark cherry, raspberry, cedar, licorice and grilled herbs all add character to this pretty, mid-weight Franc. A closing aromatic flourish rounds things out nicely. The Campo di Tenaglia is understated, and yet quite attractive at the same time.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$90.00

Release Date

April 2016

vinous

90_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2014 Campo di Magnacosta

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2028

The 2014 Campo di Magnacosta is pretty, perfumed and gracious in the glass. In this vintage, the Magnacosta is especially lifted, with mid-weight structure and plenty of aromatic top notes. Super-ripe red cherry, kirsch, white chocolate, rose petal, mint and blood orange are all nicely pushed forward. The 2014 is a touch ethereal and fleeting, but it is nevertheless quite pretty.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$100.00

Release Date

April 2016

vinous

92_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2014 Campo di Camagi

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2030

The 2014 Campo di Camagi is the most nuanced and also deepest of these three Cabernet Francs. Understated and gracious, yet with terrific flavor intensity, the Campo di Camagi hits all the right notes. Lavender, spice, menthol, black cherry and plum are all beautifully delineated in this expressive, translucent Franc. The combination of fruit depth and savoriness makes for a highly compelling wine.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$95.00

Release Date

April 2016

vinous

93 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2014 Palazzi

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2030

The 2014 Palazzi (Merlot) is classy, polished and super-expressive. In 2014, the Palazzi is naturally a bit lighter than in most years, but it also has more than enough depth to balance some of the more floral/savory notes that are so typical of the year. Sweet red cherry, cedar, tobacco, mint and blood orange all run through this expressive, pliant Merlot. All in all, the 2014 Palazzi is gracious and inviting. I would prefer to drink it over the medium term.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Merlot

Release price

$210.00

Release Date

April 2016

vinous

94_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2014 Trinoro

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2030

The 2014 Trinoro is polished and understated, with less of the textural intensity than is the norm. Then again, this is 2014. Sweet floral notes melt into a core of dark blue/purplish berry fruit, with scents of lavender, chocolate and spice that develop later. Medium in body and overall structure, the 2014 will drink well with minimal cellaring. Today it is sensual, beautifully layered and easy to enjoy.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

39% Cabernet Franc, 39% Merlot, 11% Cabernet Sauvignon, 11% Petit Verdot

Release price

$220.00

Release Date

April 2016

vinous

92_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2015 Campo di Tenaglia

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2030

The 2015 Campo di Tenaglia is dark, suave and enveloping, with soft contours and plenty of up-front appeal. Ripe dark cherry, plum, licorice, tobacco, grilled herbs, lavender and new leather all flesh out in the glass. This is another soft, approachable 2015 from Andrea Franchetti. Here, too, the heat of the growing season has blurred a measure of site expression.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$90.00

Release Date

April 2017

vinous

92_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2015 Campo di Magnacosta

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2030

The 2015 Campo di Magnacosta is plump, juicy and forward, with lovely immediacy and plenty of textural depth. Black cherry, plum, licorice, lavender, spice and menthol give the 2015 distinctly dark shades of expression. Elevated ripeness blurs some of the site character the Magnacosta can show in the best years.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$100.00

Release Date

April 2017

vinous

93_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2015 Campo di Camagi

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020+

The 2015 Campo di Camagi is the most savory of the three Cabernet Francs in this vintage. Dried herbs, smoke, worn-in leather, tobacco and cedar are all infused with Franc character. The Campo di Camagi is perhaps a bit compact next to the other wines in the range. It will appeal most to readers who find some of the other wines a bit too flamboyant. I especially like the interplay of fruit and structure. My impression is that the 2015 just needs time to be at its best and that it has more potential than it shows today.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$95.00

Release Date

April 2017

vinous

95 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2015 Palazzi

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2022 - 2035

The 2015 Palazzi, 100% Merlot, is one of the more expressive wines in this range of 2015s. Radiant, plush and seductive, with tremendous richness, the 2015 is all class. Nothing in particular stands out. Instead, it is the wine's sublime elegance and total sense of finesse that rule the day. All the elements simply fall into place. There is so much to like in this stunningly beautiful wine from Trinoro.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Merlot

Release price

$210.00

Release Date

April 2017

vinous

96 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2015 Trinoro

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2024 - 2036

The 2015 Trinoro is soft, silky and nuanced. Although a very pretty and expressive wine, the 2015 doesn't quite have the dimension or complexity of the very finest years. Admittedly, that is a very high bar. Today, the 2015 comes across as a bit understated and hushed, two adjectives I can't believe I am using to describe a Trinoro wine. Time in the glass finally allows the 2015 to start opening up. I would cellar the 2015 for at least a few years, as it is not close to being fully expressive.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

50% Cabernet Franc, 36% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Petit Verdot

Release price

$220.00

Release Date

April 2017

vinous

91 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2016 Le Cupole

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2019 - 2028

Trinoro's 2016 Le Cupole is bold, in your-face and unapologetically rich. It's also a fabulous value from Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. Blackberry jam, crème de cassis, chocolate, new leather, spice and menthol build into a crescendo of aromas and flavors as this bold, flamboyant wine shows off its alluring personality. There is nothing subtle about Le Cupole, but it is undeniably delicious.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

42% Cabernet Franc, 40% Merlot, 14% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Petit Verdot

Release price

$36.00

Release Date

April 2018

vinous

94_{pts}

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2016 Campo di Magnacosta

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2022 - 2036

The 2016 Campo di Magnacosta is an intriguing wine. A 100% Cabernet Franc from a tiny 1.5 hectare parcel on an old gravel river bed the Magnacosta is racy, silky and quite rich, as all these wines are. There is terrific aromatic brightness in the 2016, but less in the way of pure varietal Franc notes. Even so, there is something incredibly inviting to the wine. Super-ripe red cherry, pomegranate, mint and rose petal notes add striking shades of nuance through to the persistent finish. I would cellar the 2016 to allow more nuance to develop.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$100.00

Release Date

April 2018

vinous

95 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2016 Campo di Tenaglia

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2022 - 2036

The 2016 Campo di Tenaglia, 100% Cabernet Franc from a parcel planted on decomposed limestone, is explosive, dark and inviting, with tons of black cherry, blackberry jam, gravel, smoke, licorice and dark chocolate. A wine of brooding power and gravitas, the Campo di Tenaglia shows the more virile side of Cabernet Franc oft great effect. In this tasting, it is dazzling.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$90.00

Release Date

April 2018

vinous

95 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2016 Palazzi

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2022 - 2036

The 2016 Palazzi, the estate's 100% Merlot, is racy, succulent to the core. It is also the wine where the elevated ripeness of the house style is most in evidence. Dark fruit, chocolate, spice, leather and licorice all build as this flamboyant wine gradually opens up in the glass. The Palazzi is a heady, exotic wine with generous curves and tons of sheer allure.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Merlot

Release price

$210.00

Release Date

April 2018

vinous

97 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2016 Campo di Camagi

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2022 - 2036

The 2016 Campo di Camagi, 100% Cabernet Franc from a parcel planted on quartz and limestone, is the most mineral and savory of the three pure Franc wines in this range from Trinoro. Graphite, gravel, smoke, lavender, sage and menthol all add shades of complexity. A wine of explosive power, precision and energy, the 2016 is simply tremendous. That's all there is to it.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

Cabernet Franc

Release price

$95.00

Release Date

April 2018

vinous

100 pts

Tenuta Di Trinoro 2016 Trinoro

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2024 - 2036

The 2016 Trinoro is one of the most extraordinary wines I have ever tasted from Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. Deep and yet also silky, with exceptionally refined tannins and exquisite balance, the 2016 has so much to recommend it. Dark raspberry jam, white chocolate, mint and rose petal notes are all finely knit in this sublime, exquisitely beautiful wine. The finish alone boasts mind-bending intensity and persistence.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: July 2018

© 2019 Vinous Media

From Chianti Classico 2015 & 2016: Right Place, Right Time (Feb 2019)

Tenuta Di Trinoro

Two thousand sixteen will go down as one of the all time great vintages for Tenuta di Trinoro and proprietor Andrea Franchetti. The wines are off the charts, starting with the entry-level Le Cupole all the way up to the flagship Trinoro. In 2015, the wines are also quite good, if not as delineated as the 2016s and 2014s, something that is especially evident in the three 100% Cabernet Francs. The 2014s show the more delicate style of the vintage and offer a good bit of near to medium-term appeal.

Grape/Blend

48% Cabernet Franc 52% Merlot

Release price

$220.00

Release Date

April 2018