

Tenuta di Trinoro 2018 Red (Toscana)

New leather, camphor and cassis aromas emerge on this blend of 59% Cabernet Franc and 41% Merlot, along with whiffs of sweet pipe tobacco. Showing muscle but also surprising finesse, the delicious, full-bodied palate delivers ripe blackberry, Marasca cherry, licorice and grilled herbs alongside tightly knit, fine-grained tannins that envelope the rich flavors. While you might notice the warmth of alcohol on the close, you'd never guess the abv was 15.5%. —KERIN O'KEEFE

Tenuta di Trinoro 2018 Campo Tenaglia Cabernet Franc (Toscana)

Camphor, graphite, leather and grilled herb aromas mingle with a whiff of blue flowers. Made entirely with Cabernet Franc, the bold, concentrated palate offers mouthfuls of raspberry jam, espresso, molten chocolate and licorice framed in enveloping tannins. While it carries its high alcohol content well, the 16% abv catches up with you.

Tenuta di Trinoro 2017 Red (Toscana)

A blend of 69% Cabernet Franc, 23% Merlot and 8% Cabernet Sauvignon, this opens with balsamic aromas of camphor, new leather and cedar that mingle with mature black-skinned fruit. Full-bodied and powerfully structured, the concentrated palate reflects the heat of the vintage, offering dried cherry, raisin, grilled sage and star anise alongside the warmth of evident alcohol. Assertive, close-grained tannins clench the finish. Give it a few years to let the tannins unfurl. —KERIN O'KEEFE
